

STAFF COUNCIL
NOMINATION/APPLICATION FORM
2005

The University Staff Council is an advisory body serving the President of Norwich University both directly and through the Chief Administrative Officer. The Staff Council is charged with properly representing the various University staff constituencies and assuring that staff issues and advice are considered in the institutional decision-making process.

Staff Council consists of ten members and each member holds a two-year term, commencing June 1. The make-up of the membership represents, as much as possible, the various constituencies of the staff. Staff Council forwards recommended nominees to the President for review and approval.

Meetings are held twice a month throughout the entire year.

If you are interested in joining Staff Council, please fill out this form and return it to: Rob Lukaskiewicz, Chair (Learning Support Center) or any active member of Staff Council by May 13, 2005.
