

If you arrive on a date other than those listed below, or arrive after the operating hours listed, go to Jackman Hall, Room 220 (802-485-2589) to check in.

Aug. 10

9 a.m. to noon

- S-4, S-5 staff section
- Residence Life executive staff

Aug. 15

9 a.m. to noon

- Band/drill/cavalry field-training exercise participants — Corps leadership – Cadet Training Company leaders, regimental staff
- Resident adviser staff
- International Platoon (select leaders)

Aug. 20

9 a.m. to noon

- New ROTC scholarship recipients
- Line unit leaders
- International rooks
- Civilian cadre/Residence Life associate staff

Aug. 22

- 8 a.m. to noon
- Remaining rooks

Aug. 24

8 a.m. to noon

- New residential civilians
- New commuting civilians
- Flexible Pathways

Aug. 28 and Aug. 29

8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

- Returning upperclassmen
- Returning commuters

DETAILED SCHEDULES

Aug. 15 Band/Drill/Cavalry Field Training Exercise Arrival Day

9 a.m. to noon

— Students and their families are guided to the student parking lots.

Students are directed to Doyle Hall for in-processing. — During in-processing, Students will receive directions to their barracks and room numbers. New rooks will also receive their mail keys and their issued duffel bags.

— Students and families will return to their vehicles to drive to the Upper Parade Ground.

— At barracks, students will meet cadet leaders, off-load personal belongings and be directed to check in with the company mentor to receive their room key.

— Families are then guided off the Upper Parade Ground toward student parking lots.

In-processing stations are open for:

— Band/drill/cavalry FTX participants

— Cadet Training Company leaders

— Regimental Staff

— Resident adviser staff (16)

— International Platoon (select leaders)

After noon

— Rooks will be directed to follow the commandant-developed training matrix.

Aug. 20 New ROTC Scholarship Arrival Day

9 a.m. to noon

Students and their families are guided to the student parking lots.

— Students are directed to Doyle Hall for in-processing. — During in-processing, students will get directions to their barracks and room numbers. New rooks will also receive their mail keys and issued duffel bags.

— Students and families will return to their vehicles to drive to the Upper Parade Ground.

— At barracks, students will be met by cadet leaders, off-load personal belongings, and be directed to check in with the company mentor to receive room keys.

— Families will then be guided off the Upper Parade Ground toward student parking lots.

After noon:

— Rooks will be directed to follow the training matrix developed by their respective ROTC branch.

— International line unit leaders and civilian cadre will follow training matrix as provided by the Commandant's Office and Student Life (respectively).

ROTC Scholarship Dinner in the evening (time TBD).

Aug. 22: Rook Arrival Day

7:30 to 10:30 a.m.

— Rooks and their families are guided to the student parking lots.

— Rooks are directed to Doyle Hall for in-processing. — During in-processing, rooks will get directions to barracks and their room numbers, mail keys and issued duffle bags. They will also be assigned a lunchtime based on their arrival time, and will get two tickets for lunch in the Wise Campus Center. — Rooks and families will return to their vehicles to drive to the Upper Parade Ground.

— Proceeding through Upper Parade Ground, families will be guided to barracks.

— At barracks, rooks will be met by cadet leaders, off-load personal belongings, and be directed to check-in with their company mentor to receive room keys. — Families will then be guided off the Upper Parade Ground and toward parking lot (student parking lots).

8 a.m. to noon

— In-processing stations are open.

— After in-processing, families may go back to the rooks' rooms and/or tour campus.

10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

— Group 1: Lunch in Wise Campus Center

— Group 2: Visit Sullivan Museum and History Center, bookstore, etc.

11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

— Group 2: Lunch in Wise Campus Center.

— Group 1: Visit Sullivan Museum and History Center, bookstore, etc.

1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

— Welcome ceremony in Shapiro Fieldhouse.

2:30 to 3 p.m.

— Rooks will be directed to follow the commandant-provided training matrix.

Families are invited to attend Norwich University Parent and Family Association reception in Plumley Armory or depart campus.

—

Aug. 24: New Civilian Student Arrival Day

8 a.m. to noon

- New students and their families are guided through south entrance to the student parking lots.
- New students are directed to Doyle Hall for inprocessing. During in-processing, students will get their residence halls and room numbers, mail keys, and two tickets for lunch in the Wise Campus Center dining hall.
- New residential students and families return to vehicles and move to residence halls for off-loading. They will be met by civilian leaders for support.

8 a.m. noon

- In-processing stations are open.
- After students finish in-processing, families may go back to students' rooms and/or tour campus.

10:45 a.m. to 1 p.m.

- Lunch in Wise Campus Center
- Visit Sullivan Museum and History Center, bookstore, etc.

1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

- Welcome ceremony in Shapiro Fieldhouse.

After 2:30 p.m.

- Students will be directed to follow the Orientation Schedule.
- Families are invited to attend Norwich University Parent and Family Association Reception in Plumley Armory or depart campus.